The Grant Assembly in Kabul to Release Taliban Never End War.

(It was US President Donald Trump Election -Year Publicity)

Afghan Political observers believe that the ongoing game is being followed up in continuation of the previous policy of USA and its allies. The same game but in a new fashion. Unrest, chaotic and unsafe situation is being engineered intentionally by foreign occupiers and Pakistan to prolong their existence, plundering the mines and underground natural resources of Afghanistan.

It is no secret that President Ghani has no authority, whatsoever. He is a puppet, supporting behind the scenes the criminal Taliban who have been committing heinous crimes against the people of Afghanistan. Ghani and Karzai and Khalilzad have supported and equipped Taliban based on undeniable evidence shown in their words and deeds. However, Taliban have perpetually committed numerous crimes against humanity, such as bombing, killing, looting, organising suicide bombing, abducting, sexual assaults, and many others. Taliban's crimes have been going on since they commenced training in Madrasas(religious schools) of Pakistan, ever since Major General Naseerullah Khan Babar founded the Taliban movement when he was serving as Interior Minister of Pakistan during Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto's second government from 1993-1996.

The US invaded Afghanistan in October 2001 to oust the Taliban, whom they said were harbouring Osama bin Laden and other al-Qaeda figures linked to the 9/11 attacks. The number of US troops in Afghanistan grew as Washington poured in billions of dollars apparently to fight the Taliban insurgency and fund reconstruction. But why now after thousands of people were killed, maimed, and handicapped, the USA is dealing with Taliban, without the consent of the people of Afghanistan. Donald Trump uses any election-year deal with the Taliban as an accomplishment of his promise to wind up "endless wars." But the withdrawal may not be as complete as it seems. According to reports from Afghan and foreign political analysts, the deal between Taliban and American Envoy, Zalmay Khalilzad, contains several "secret annexes" — provisions which has not become public — that would allow the U.S. to maintain some of its military and intelligence bases under the pretext of fighting the counterterrorism forces, enabling it to continue conducting targeted operations there. That was the task which had to be fulfilled 18 years ago. Mr Khalilabad is one of the major players for the on-going efforts to maintain the supremacy of extremist Pashtun fundamentalists in his failed mission. That is why for two decades a broad-based government to observe justice and equality among all citizens has not been established yet.

Reports says of a deal between the US and Pakistan to install Taliban in power. The US does not care about democracy or human rights. President Trump would like to show that he wants to withdraw American troops from Afghanistan. Ostensibly, to end America's so called longest military offshore engagement in history. In fact, it is not the longest war but the longest occupation of a nation. According to foreign analysts, President Trump tries to attract the attention of voters for his second presidential term.

The news has leaked from Doha that America has dealt with Taliban to agree to its military bases in Afghanistan to protect the security of gas pipeline the republic of Turkmenistan across Afghanistan and Pakistan to the Indian Ocean. Khalilzad has been closely occupied with task of US efforts to access to the oil and gas resources of the region. At present Khalilabad's son is also working with the American oil company UNOCAL according to Afghan observers.

Since Khalilzad was appointed as a special envoy to Afghanistan by President Bush he participated in talks between the oil company and Taliban officials in 1997, which were aimed at implementing a 1995 agreement to build the pipeline across western Afghanistan. That is currently the same issue which is part of the deal with Taliban.

Until now, 5100 Taliban operators were already released from prisons without seeking the views of people through the so-called national assembly. Such an important issue should have been decided by the Parliament or ratified in a plebiscite, so that those people of Afghanistan who have lost their loved ones, would have an opportunity to exercise their right of national self-determination in relation to their destiny and raise their voice against those who devastated their families. People look at this Assembly Council as a game. It was organised as an artificial and orchestrated assembly composed of those in favour of Taliban from inside and outside the government. Even the slightest voice of a lady was quelled by physical assault.

President Ghani was trying to get the approval of USA to remain in power for another 5 years to agree to the release of 400 Taliban. But America seemingly did not agree to that proposal. He has to go, he just wanted to put the responsibility of the release of 400 Taliban to the people, and participants of the assembly who were well in advance directed to agree to their release in this ridiculous government self-made gathering. However, 5100 of the criminal Taliban prisoners were already released behind the scenes without any consult and negotiation with the people of Afghanistan.

In holding this illegitimate “Grand Assembly”, 50 million US dollars was spent which could have been spent on feeding thousands of people who are living below the poverty line. The American Administration seemingly told Ghani, “if the last 400’ Taliban would not be released, then America would release them.” Therefore, Afghan president has just been installed as a teddy bear and puppet of the occupying forces of America. His decree has no value in relation to the release of Taliban.

Americans have agreed in the State of Qatar with Taliban leaders in mediation of Pakistan to be installed in power. Ghani will leave Afghanistan or will be faced with the destiny of President Najib. It is also highly likely that a civil war may break out. People do not like Taliban to be ruling again in Afghanistan as they did in the past. We need to just wait and see what may happen, however, our intelligent guess and prediction based on observation the development of situation for so long will be not be far from reality. It is improbable that one of the following events may not occur.

- There will not any peace, civil war is likely to happen.
- America and its allies are not in favour of peace in Afghanistan.
- The national army of Afghanistan is financed by USA and seems highly likely to be disintegrated into several factions, defending their own ethnic groups, because the government has been trying for the last two decades to sideline other ethnicities from power. Only a few opportunists, corrupt and flatters and self-seeking political figures from other ethnic groups for personal interest are on the side of this government which came in power by rigging and fraud.

- It is highly likely that another terror group by the name of Daesh / ISIS come into being by those who want to keep the unrest in Afghanistan inflamed for justification of their presence and under the pretext of fighting against Daesh.
- The ongoing game is being followed up in continuation of the previous policy of USA and its allies. Unrest, chaotic and unsafe situation is being engineered intentionally by foreign occupiers and Pakistan to prolong their existence for plundering the mines and underground resources of Afghanistan.

However, it sounds pessimistic, but most people in Afghanistan know what is going on in their country, based on evidence and observation shaping the politics by foreign intelligence services in Afghanistan since 2001.

The release of the most notorious criminal who killed over 750000 soldiers and officers of our national army and thousands of children, men, and women in our homeland are released irresponsibly and cold-heartedly by the occupying forces. While they were keeping in power, two of its most corrupt agents, Hamid Karzai, and Ashraf Ghani, for almost 18 years. People ask why still the issue has remained unresolved. Why the criminals of the people of Afghanistan are released from prisons without trials, punishment and bringing them to justice?

The American Administration proved itself times and again that the people in other countries has no value to American leaders, while their interest may be somehow concerned.

It is time for the people of Afghanistan to raise their voices, inside and outside the country, against the Taliban which America in collusion with Pakistan and Arab countries are trying to put them in power for their own long term strategic influence in the region, no matter what will be the consequences for our country. The gradual eradication of the people of Afghanistan has been going since the start of occupation in many different fashions. Taliban are artificial coronaviruses, like smallpox virus, until the country is freed from their scourge no peace will be expected even in farseeing future.
